Dear David;

On behalf of the South Carolina chapter of the Society of International Business Fellows (SIBF), I would like to thank you for your presentation on Relationship Economics.

The sold out Technic Room was filled with SIBF members and prospects representing a vast and varied group of people. Your presentation related to everyone attending from CEO's, top executive teams from many different industries, leading surgeons and medical/hospital personal, leading non-profit boards & foundations, and local political electives; including one mayor and three councilmen. Without exception, we have had nothing but exceptional and exciting feedback.

Relationships are the key to success in any industry, any non-profit organization, and any political group. Your message was a touch-point with everyone in the room. It also reflected the superior quality of members, presentations and programs offered by SIBF.

Again, thank you for an excellent seminar. It inspired me and everyone in the room.

With Best Regards,

Jerry Barber
S.C. State Chairman
